MEMORANDUM FOR: Assistant Director, Policy Coordination
FROM: Deputy Director, Plans
SUBJECT: Discussion with Mr. James King on 8 March 1951

1. I joined the Acting Director during a conference he had with a Mr. James King, who is in the Office of the Secretary of the Army, acting, I believe, as a Special Consultant to discuss the matter with us, or with the appropriate parties here in the Government, if there was any interest in the matter.

2. I told Mr. King that the question of Albania was one in which various departments of the Government were taking a very immediate interest; that I could assure him that it was highly complicated; that unilateral action on the Greek side would probably complicate matters; and, that any American participation, even private, would add a further complication. I told Mr. King that we would look into the matter further and if there seemed to be any good reason for
